

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Developing a national training program for weights and measures officials is a challenging and ambitious project. It requires time, dedication, and expertise from individuals from a variety of constituencies involved in the profession.

It is impossible to list the names of the many people who contributed to the development of this course. However, gratitude is extended to the following groups, whose dedication and commitment made this training program a reality:

- Members of the Committee on Education, Administration, and Consumer Affairs of the National Conference on Weights and Measures
- The staff of the Office of Weights and Measures of the National Institute of Standards and Technology
- Department of Agriculture, Weights and Measures, of the State of Maryland
- Office of Weights and Measures of the Commonwealth of Virginia
- Representatives from several manufacturers of weighing and measuring equipment, including Brooks Instrument Division of Emerson Electric Co., Liquid Controls Corp., Meter Manufacturers Technical Committee, Midwest Computer Register Corp., Neptune Measurement Co., Seraphin Test Measure Co., Smith Meter, Inc., and Tokheim Corp.
- The Working Group for the vehicle-tank meters training module:
 - Vernon Bowen, Georgia Dept. of Agriculture
 - Martin Coile, Georgia Dept. of Agriculture
 - Clark DeLoach, Brooks Meter
 - Steve Dill, Georgia Dept. of Agriculture
 - Charles Howard, Brooks Meter
 - James Meeks, Georgia Dept. of Agriculture
 - Arnold Roberts, Brooks Meter
 - Tom Scott, North Carolina Dept. of Agriculture
 - Curt Williams, Georgia Dept. of Agriculture
- The groups that sponsored field tests of the module:
 - The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Division of Standards, in cooperation with the Massachusetts Weights and Measures Association
 - The Department of Consumer Protection and Weights and Measures, Bucks County, Pennsylvania

It is sincerely hoped that this course helps weights and measures officials throughout the country meet their personal and professional objectives.

The staff of Industrial Training Corporation.
